Client — Company name: _____

Address: _____

Registration / tax no: _____ ("Client")

AI Trade and the Client are together the "Parties" and each a "Party".

2. Purpose

The Parties will share information to review where the Client's e-commerce operation loses money and time (the "Check-up") and to assess a possible consulting project (the "Purpose"). This agreement keeps that information confidential; it does not oblige either Party to start a project.

3. Confidential information

Any information a Party (the "Discloser") gives the other Party (the "Recipient") for the Purpose, in writing, orally, electronically or through system access, that is marked confidential or is confidential by its nature, is "Confidential Information". Examples: sales, revenue, cost, margin, campaign, advertising and stock data; customer, supplier and pricing information and contract terms; dashboard, report and system access details; AI Trade's analysis methods, templates, calculation models and check-up assessment.

4. Exclusions

The following is not Confidential Information; the Recipient bears the burden of proof:

1. information that is public when disclosed or later becomes public through no fault of the Recipient;
2. information the Recipient already knew, without a duty of confidentiality, before receiving it from the Discloser;
3. information the Recipient lawfully obtains from a third party without a duty of confidentiality;
4. information the Recipient develops independently without using the Confidential Information;
5. information that must be disclosed by law, court order or a competent authority. In that case the Recipient, where legally possible, informs the Discloser in advance and discloses only what is required.

5. Obligations

The Recipient:

1. uses the Confidential Information only for the Purpose;
2. discloses it only to employees who need it for the Purpose and to advisers bound by the same confidentiality, and is responsible for their compliance;
3. protects it with at least the care it uses for its own confidential information, and no less than reasonable care;

4. does not share, copy or publish it without the Discloser's written consent;
5. informs the Discloser without delay on learning of any unauthorised access or disclosure.

AI Trade will not use the Client's name, logo or any result that identifies the Client as a reference or case study without the Client's written consent. Anonymous, aggregated learnings that do not identify the Client are outside this restriction.

6. Personal data

The Client does not share personal data (e.g. end-customer names, phone numbers, addresses) unless needed for the Purpose, and shares anonymised or aggregated data where possible. If personal data must be shared, the Parties will put in place a separate data processing arrangement in line with Turkish Personal Data Protection Law No. 6698 (KVKK) and any other applicable law.

7. Term, return and destruction

- This agreement takes effect on the date of the last signature. The duty of confidentiality continues for 2 (two) years after discussions between the Parties end.
- On the Discloser's written request, or if discussions end without a project, the Recipient returns or destroys the Confidential Information and all copies within 30 days and confirms this in writing. Copies kept under a legal retention duty or in automatic backups are excepted and remain confidential.
- If the Parties sign a project agreement, this agreement continues to apply during the project unless that agreement says otherwise.

8. General

- Ownership: Confidential Information remains the Discloser's property; this agreement grants no licence or other right.
- No warranty: Confidential Information is provided "as is", without any warranty of accuracy or completeness.
- Governing law and jurisdiction: Turkish law applies. The courts and enforcement offices of Istanbul (Anatolia) have jurisdiction.
